Part A: email, letter, notice

Part B: picture, table, graph

Part A: email & letter:

Distinguished Professor Cook,

I am writing this email to recommend you some famous tourist attractions of this city. I have lived here since 1995 and have been familiar with every corner of the city.

Firstly, considering that you are the fresh visitor to this city, so it is advisable for you to have a look at the City's Museum, which is beneficial for quickly learning the comprehensive perspective, such as the development of this city, and its specific culture. What's more, another tourist site deserving your visit is our special and sophisticated buildings in the center of the city, since these buildings are telling residents the gradual changing habits and lifestyles, which are helpful to assimilate yourself into this city.

I do hope that you would find these tourist attractions worthy of your visit and appreciation.

sincerely yours,

Li Ming
